

Petroliana!

If you like gas station and oil company nostalgia from the golden era of the automobile, you'll love "Check the Oil!" Magazine!

"CTO!" readers are an international group of enthusiasts and collectors of the memorabilia and history of the petroleum industry. Readers are interested in just about anything associated with the gas and oil business of days-gone-by, such as oil cans, oil bottles, gas pumps, gas pump globes, signs, maps, or anything with a gas or oil company logo on it. Several have even restored old filling stations!

From the mid-1980s, "CTO!" has featured articles of wide-ranging Petroliana interest, such as histories of oil companies; the memorabilia and artifacts associated with them; readers' collections; a calendar of Petroliana Events and coverage of many of them; related commercial advertising; a subscribers' FREE classified ad section where one can buy, sell and trade for collectible items; and much more, including free classified ads on the website. Our 2 day annual show in June known as the "Big Friendly" includes something for everyone.

Not just another newsletter, "CTO!" is a high-quality magazine, now with every page in full-color, featuring vintage and current photographs, noted regular columnists and is published six times a year. Please accept my personal invitation to join us by returning the subscription form below.

Sincerely,

Jerry
